Three-Year Moving Average, 1990–2002

Data Source: UCDP/HSRP Dataset.

Peace agreements signed since 1998 have been less likely to breakdown than those of the early 1990s.

Note: The trend line is a three-year moving average that smoothes the year-on-year fluctuations and makes the short-term trend more discernible.
